Hugo Miguez and Stacy Kay are renowned, internationally, for their precision, variety, and teaching methods within West Coast Swing. Their partnership was formed in 2011 on a dance cruise with a single goal in mind; Influence through passion and fidelity. Since then, they have taken the circuit by storm with their Classic Routine ("Wild Ones").

Hugo began dancing at a young age and was accepted to his high school hip-hop and break dancing team. He began teaching other styles of dance such as Salsa, Hustle, Argentine Tango, West Coast Swing and Ballroom, working at Fred Astaire and other independent studios.

Stacy Kay began her training in Gymnastics, later joining a Theatre Arts Lyrical, Jazz and Ballet Company. She competed across the nation through out high school until she was offered a position at a local Arthur Murray Ballroom studio.
